

The Aligarh Alumni Association, Washington, DC

Membership Application (April to March)

The Aligarh Alumni Association, founded in 1975, is a non-political, non-profit, tax-exempt, charitable, educational, social, and cultural organization for the alumni and well-wishers of the Aligarh Muslim University (AMU). The Association takes interest in affairs of the University, runs a scholarship program to help selected meritorious, needy students, and organizes social, literary, and cultural programs.

The aims and objectives of the Association are to: (i) help AMU and its student body through scholarship and other programs; (ii) develop and strengthen a sense of community by organizing social projects and events; and (iii) promote cultural awareness through cultural and literary activities.

Membership in the Association is open to all who believe in the aims and objectives of the Association. Please become a member and support the Association by your active participation.
